A REASONABLE DOUBT.

Mr. Wallace, in his testimony before the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals this week shed some light on his opinion of the relative values of a commissioner at Panama and one who stays at home. He told the members of the committee that $30,000 was not too much to pay Mr. Stevens for the responsibility and the work. On the other hand he said that the commissioners who remained in Washington were well enough paid.

"Then Mr. Stevens would get as much as six of the Senators present," queried Senator Morgan.

"I presume so; and he earns it."

"We are getting all we are willing to take," replied the Senator.

"I doubt that," answered Mr. Wallace, a reply that caused a shout of laughter.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Speak for it!" she cried to doggie. For she knew in her little heart, That German Syrup, home's great treasure, Could health and joy impart.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectation in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup.

We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.
